New Route 62

PLANNING BOARD OPPOSES PROPOSAL

The Wilmington Planning Board, ready to oppose the routing of the new Route 62 through Wilmington, seems to be all prepared for the State Department of Public Works on April 10th in Arlington, in which Route 62 is probably to be discussed.

A written presentation, as well as oral arguments, is to be made by the Wilmington Planning Board, and the Board of Selectmen of Wilmington have said that they will be in attendance.

The Wilmington Planning Board met Tuesday night with representatives of the Planning Boards of Andover, Burlington, North Reading, Reading and Woburn, in the Hiller House, in back of the Middlesex Bank. Also in attendance were Professor Elliot, Consultant, and the Town Engineer, as well as Christian Bachman and Cindie Williams of the Wilmington Conservation Commission.

The members of the out-of-town Planning Boards agreed generally with the Wilmington position.

Frank Baxter, representing the Burlington Planning Board, said that his own position was that the new Route 62 should be 'north of the Burlington line' i.e. in Billerica.

The Burlington Planning Board, he said, was unanimously against the presently proposed layout.

The North Reading representatives, three in number, were at least slightly in favor of using

Doctor Pyne Slept Through it All

A chase which started in Reading, Thursday night, and involved a total of nine police cruisers ended in North Wilmington with the capture of a 20-year-old Roxbury youth, after the car he had been driving landed in the yard of Dr. John Pyne, at the corner of Middlesex Avenue and Federal Street. The car, which was speeding north on Middlesex Avenue, jumped over the sidewalk and stonewall and knocked branches off a small pine tree which were about ten feet above the ground.

The youth, even without a car, was hard to catch, and led the police on a merry foot chase about the area.

He has since been convicted of leaving the scene of an accident, and of driving to endanger, and has been sentenced to six months in the House of Correction. A charge of giving a false name to a police officer has been filed.

A wrecker, called to remove the car, had to tow it around the home of Dr. Pyne, and in the process the top of the septic tank was broken.

Dr. Pyne, who was at home, knew nothing of the events until he got up next morning. He slept through it all.

SWEARING IN THE NEW SELECTMEN: Yesterday was Student Government Day in Wilmington. The Student Selectmen are shown above, being sworn into office by the Town Clerk, Mrs. Esther Russell, while the Student Town Manager, who is not an 'elected' official, awaits his turn to be sworn in.

Volkswagen Moves

April 12

Volkswagen Northeastern Distributors did not move to its new plant in Wilmington on April 1.

The plant was not ready, work having been delayed by the late winter storms. An extension of time for staying in their present facility in Waltham was granted until April 12th.

Volkswagen Northeastern expects to be open for business in Wilmington on April 14th.

Attorney General has Town Meeting Vote

The vote of the Town Meeting on all Zoning Articles, and other items of interest to the Attorney General of Massachusetts, was sent to the office of the Attorney General last Friday by Mrs. Esther Russell, Town Clerk.

Mrs. Russell did not send a special report on the Lucci zoning, as had been previously reported in the Town Crier. All reports went in together.

School Schedule Revised

The School Calendar for the rest of the school year has been revised, but in a way that will make very little difference to the school children. The calendar had to be revised because of the 'lost time' during the late winter storms. The last day of the school year is unchanged - June 26th.

The revised calendar now reads: April 4, Good Friday, No School. April 21 thru 25, Spring Vacation, No School. May 26, Memorial Day, No School.

June 26, Last day of regular school for the 1968-69 school year. June 24, 25, 26, Final examinations for the High School students 8:00 - 11:30 am.

June 25 and 26, Elementary and Intermediate Schools will close at noon.

June 30 - August 15, Head Start Program.

July 7 - August 15, Summer School Program.

Other Events

April 18, Junior Prom, Hillview Country Club, No. reading.

May 23, Senior Prom, The Castle, Ipswich.

June 8, Baccalaureate, High School Auditorium.

June 12, Senior Banquet, North Intermediate School.

June 15, High School Graduation Football Field, at 4 pm.

7500 VOLUMES
MOVED BY BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scouts of Troops 56 and 59 and their adult leaders did a good turn for the Public Library, last Saturday.

7500 volumes, which had been stored at the temporary branch library at Lucci's were moved to the new Library, still to be opened, Middlesex Avenue. The Scouts and their leaders accomplished the work in about six hours.

PLANNING BOARD

(From Fr. Pg.)

Route 125 as it goes through Wilmington, North Reading and Andover, instead of laying out a new route 62.

Edward Bowley Jr., of Tewksbury, representing the Planning Board of that town, had no definite position, but did say that the feeling in Tewksbury was that there should be an access to Interstate Route 93, which could be had if Route 62 were to cross 93 above the Evans farm in North Wilmington, a route that has been sketched out as a proposal by Professor Eliot.

In any event they will all be present, they said.

The proposed Route 62, now in preparatory stages, is to be a 'double-barrelled' limited access highway. Two proposals have been made for it to cross Wilmington, one crossing Main Street near Rocco's Restaurant, and the other crossing Main Street near Cain's Garage.

The southerly (Cain's Garage) route would cross Interstate 93 at a point just above the new Volkswagen plant.

The northerly route would cross Interstate 93 either at the present Route 62 crossing, or at a point nearby.

Professor Eliot, who had a newly prepared chart showing his ideas of how the roads of Wilmington should be laid out for future use, thinks that a route through Tewksbury, crossing Interstate 93 about a mile north of the Evans farm, and joining up with Route 125 would be the best, but he is against the idea of a new Route 62.

He told the Wilmington Planning Board and guests that the 'justification for the new route is very fuzzy' in his belief. 'They say it must be very near Route 128 (the Circumferential Highway around Boston) but I'll be darned if I can see the need for a four barrelled express way.'

Eliot said that he felt there should be a 'low density population area' between Route 128 and Route 495, which goes around Boston about 10 miles further out than 128.

Eliot told Mr Bower that he had a sketch of laying out a route from 125 towards the Tewksbury Hospital, which, Bower said, would probably be welcomed by the Tewksbury Planning Board.

The agenda for the April 10 meeting allows but 30 minutes for discussion (as reported last week) and several of those present commented on this. Others had not yet even seen an agenda, and when an explanation was made that it had probably been sent to the respective Boards of Selectmen there were several grins of understanding on why the individuals had not seen the proposal.

Madelyn McKie, Chairman of the Wilmington Planning Board, and the Wilmington representative to the Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC) reported that in last Thursday's meeting of the MAPC in Quincy she had said that the three plans now in the making, (MAPC with MTA plans, Ipswich River Authority, and DPW plans) would divide Wilmington up into reservoirs and superhighways, with room only for fishes and autos, parked or moving.

She also reported that she had criticised the 30 minutes allocated for discussion of the plans (this report being after most of the guests had left), and that there were 'hoots and hollers' on the part of some of the representatives of the cities and towns present, at the short time allowed.

Danny Gillis said that there should be 'two or three sessions' for discussion of the proposed routes, and that the Wilmington Planning Board should so move, and in writing, for the record.

In another part of the discussion Professor Eliot said that in 1956 the planning had been for 'open space' - and now the encouragement was for 'intensive development.'

'Just why is a major facility of this sort clearly necessary? I am sure that they will argue that there will be so many more autos in 1990. If you follow that argument you'll just have to fall down and worship the Great Auto!'

Other Discussions

The talk was wide ranging, and did not stick to the subject of the proposed new Route 62.

Professor Eliot said, for instance, that he had just heard on Tuesday morning that 'some planning' is going on for a huge parking lot in Woburn, with the MTA Budd cars to be routed to that place, to encourage Boston commuters to not drive into Boston. In connection with this he spoke of plans for a new road into South Wilmington, to cross the Wil-

Selectmen's Meeting

Monday night was appointment night, at the Board of Selectmen's meeting.

After a moment of silence for the late President Eisenhower the board got down to business. It voted to send letters of thanks and commendation to Ernest Jamieson of Woburn Street, who is resigning from the Board of Appeals, and to all other resigning members of other boards.

Robert Jennings of Moore Street was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Appeals. He was the Associate member with the longest standing, and was nominated by James Micell.

Selectman Bruce MacDonald told the board that the present chairman of the Board of Appeals, Richard Howlett was expected to resign. MacDonald brought up the question of having George Robertie of Woburn Street assume the chair. Chairman Banda said that Robertie was already on the Board of Appeals, and that the chairmanship 'does not ride on a particular seat' It was then voted to name Jennings to the vacant position.

Gordon Hayward of Thrush Road was then nominated by Micell to fill the associat position to be vacated by Jennings, and Peter Enos of Hillside Way was nominated by Bruce MacDonald. Enos was elected by a 3-2 vote.

All other appointments were by unanimous decision.

Arthur Smith of Woburn Street, nominated by MacDonald, and David Holbrook of Church Street, nominated by Micell, were elected to the Permanent Building Committee. They are to fill vacancies caused by the election of John Callan to the post of Moderator, and by Lionel Baldwin's desire not to be reappointed, because of business pressures.

Talbot Emery was re-elected to the Board of Registrars, and John Imbimbo and Arthur Kelley to the post of Constables of Wilmington.

A Building By-Law Committee was appointed, in accordance with the town meeting vote.

Mrs Drew named Stanley Weber 'We need an older person - not all kids'.

Jack Nealon of Grace Drive was named by Micell, Mrs Stella Courtney of Andover Street by Bruce MacDonald, Mrs Joan Bachman (president of the League of Women Voters), of Marle Drive by George Boylen, and Milton Cram of Lawrence Street by Chairman James Banda, on the suggestion of TM Morris.

Hearings were set for April 14 on two petitions for manholes on Lowell Street, from the New England Telephone Company. Robert Palmer, Superintendent of Streets, will be asked for a report on the matter.

A letter of invitation to the Patriots Day parade in Concord was received.

The board was reminded of the Student Government Banquet on Wednesday.

An application for a taxi license by John Melvin was indefinitely tabled.

The application of a renewal of a gasoline permit by John Elia was put off for another week, with most members of the board not having enough knowledge of the matter to make a decision.

Micell asked that the Town Counsel make a report on the license. Mrs Drew is now thsonly member of the board who was in office when the permit was decided, after a lapse of seven years.

Boylen stated that he was not in favor of the permit. He said that Main Street had been damaged by too many gas stations, and that another gas station in North Wilmington would affect the property values in an area with some of the more highly valued homes in town.

Mrs Drew said that the permit had been last granted with a provision that a station be in operation within three years of the granting. The applicant says that that was in April 1966, she said, but she was fairly sure that it was in August of 1965. Micell said he had been on the board for three years, and that the action was taken before his election.

It was decided to have the minutes of the previous decision put in the agenda for the next meeting.

Then the members began to delve into the date when the permit was first granted. 'Before 1936' was the date most thought to be correct. Banda said that the Wilmington Ford permit created problems because it had been granted in 1955, and that this would really be a problem, having been first granted 20 years before that. He was referring to the 'Grandfather Clause' so-called.

It was then decided to send a letter of commendation to Walter Hale Jr., the resigning member of the Planning Board.

Micell said that he had received complaints about Magazine Street being extremely muddy and poorly drained. The TM said that the board could do what it wanted, but this was not an accepted street, and other unaccepted streets had the same problems.

Boylen said that Taplin Avenue, an accepted street, had some of the same problems, and then Micell said that there had been some filling of swampland and a stream at the end of Taplin Avenue, and that there had been some building there.

Mrs Drew had received three complaints she said. She had already discussed them with the Town Manager.

Boylen asked about street sweeping. Morris said it would be starting soon. Boylen also wanted to know about the West Street land takings, voted in the Town Meeting. How soon would the work get underway. Morris said that the land could be taken almost immediately, but the special Town Meeting to be held some time in May would have to vote money for proper drainage, etc.

Morris told the Selectmen that the State Department of Public Works would be coming to Wilmington soon for negotiation on the Lowell Street - Woburn Street widening. The state, he said, has said that no other width than 80 feet would be accepted.

The members of the board felt otherwise. They seemed to think that 60 feet would be sufficient, and that 80 feet would involve excessive land takings.

The TM reported that the Town Employees Association had signed a wage contract, and that the funds allocated in the Town Meeting were sufficient.

Felice Vitale, in the audience, asked the Board how to go about having representative town meeting, rather than open town meeting. Micell recommended that the Town Counsel be asked, but Banda told Vitale that he should ask the League of Women Voters.

David Kinney of Woburn Street appeared before the board with a complaint about some property on River Street. He claimed that an old building there, near property he owns, is a hazard. The building had been torn down, he said, but nothing was done to remove the debris, and he felt that children in the area were likely to be hurt.

The Town Manager asked for an executive session. Chairman Banda said that he was not in favor of executive sessions, but would go along with the other members of the board. The session lasted forty minutes.

Letter

318 Woburn Street
Wilmington Mass
April 2, 1969

Dear Captain Neilson:

In your report of the Planning Board meeting in last week's Town Crier, I noticed that there had been some misinterpretation regarding the formation of a Citizen's Advisory Committee (CAC).

The reason for establishing such a committee is NOT to 'help the Planning Board in its thinking of the problems of Conservancy', as was stated; but rather is an integral part of the ENTIRE plan, and is recommended procedure for a comprehensive 701 program.

The purpose of the CAC, as it is called, is two-fold. Initially, it can give direction to the Planning Board in developing our Master Plan by reflecting the views of the residents.

Wilmington, today, is a more cosmopolitan community than it was during the late 1950's when the General Plan Report was developed. At that time there were many small neighborhood groups which the Board could contact.

Now that these organizations have disappeared, it is increasingly difficult to maintain a close rapport with the citizenry. The CAC would provide a basis for this kind of communication.

Secondly, since a comprehensive 701 Program is so complex, it seems sensible to attempt to keep the townspeople informed of the many aspects of the Program as each is studied. By meeting at stated intervals with such a group, the Planning Board could relate many of the details of these components to the committee members.

The meetings would be essentially informative both for the CAC and for the Planning Board. A report would be given by the Board with a discussion to follow. The results should be rewarding to all concerned.

Membership should include representations of the various organizations within the Town, both fraternal and civic; religious denominations; different sectors of the Town, North, East, West, South, and Center; and public, as well as private, enterprise. In other words, the membership should be a fair representation of the townspeople and the businesses located here.

The Board will welcome the names and addresses of those readers who may be interested in joining such a committee.

Very truly yours,
Madelyn A. McKie
(Mrs Theodore C. McKie, Chmn.)

CHERYL SILVERS TO MARRY
WILLIAM M. PARK

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Silvers of Salem Street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Jane, to Mr. William M. Park of Salem, N.H., son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Park of Bal-lardvale Street, Wilmington.

A May wedding is planned.

Christian Science and Easter

Has our scientific, self-sufficient world outgrown the original Easter event -- as a child outgrows egg hunts and the Easter bunny? Have we come too far on our own?

Questions like these may not be as modern as they sound. It was on the very first Easter day, according to the book of Matthew, that Christ Jesus' resurrection (chapter 28) was doubted and denied. Yet every year, as sure as spring, men look back to that event. The drama of those few days still speaks to every age.

Deny yourself completely, the Saviour has taught, and you will save yourself. But what if we can see nothing beyond that denied 'self' no promise hidden in the ashes of the 'old' man? With immense practical affection for humanity, Jesus gave his answer.

Willingly Jesus yielded up his body and the temporal life and self associated with it. But the grave could not contain him. The result was resurrection - his continuing life. He proved that real individuality is as irresistible as light. It can never be absorbed by darkness, can never be destroyed by circumstance or death.

How our hope and idealism are strengthened by that example! Don't we catch a glimpse of the fact that we can safely let go of that all-too-familiar sense of self and the limited good we suppose it can do?

We can grow and develop without limit. We are to become what we actually are - the sons of God!

No wonder Jesus' example - this sonship with God to which Jesus witnessed - changed the course of history. It swept up and transformed his followers. It has taken on tidal-wave proportions in the lives of men.

Speaking of Christ Jesus, Mary Baker Eddy, who discovered and founded Christian Science, writes (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures): 'Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage... Our Master taught no mere theory, doctrine or belief. It was the divine Principle of all real being which he taught and practised.'

Doesn't Easter promise that each of us can leave his own tomb? The imprisoning stone of selfishness, indifference to the suffering of others, mindless sensuality, self-doubt, can be rolled away. All can obey Jesus' command to Peter: 'Follow me' (John 21:19).

We follow when we respond to the deeper needs of fellow men for dignity, affection, forgiveness. And such compassion begins to reveal true individuality - ourselves as known by God.

Isn't this the beginning of our resurrection - of finding again that endless wonder of the world's first Easter.

Unlabeled poisons are a major danger in every home.

We become careless with household chemicals, and every year this carelessness causes 1,300 deaths.

Four hundred of these are pre-school children who are too young to understand or know the dangers.

Accidental poisoning is preventable. Develop habit of safe living.

Label all poisonous substances clearly and keep them out of the reach of little children. If more people were more cautious in this respect home-poisoning would be lessened.

Little League Will Continue at Rotary Park

The Board of Directors of Rotary Park, Inc. last week voted to continue to allow the Wilmington Little League to have their baseball grounds on the present site, at the park on an indefinite lease.

Sometime ago the Little League was told that 1969 would be the last year they could use Rotary Park, as the final work of tree planting, etc would be started this summer.

The Rotary Park Directors, in discussing the problems, noted that Little League at present has no other site to which to go, even though the Rotary Park directors were willing to help find another site.

The feeling was that the Little League, in a few more years, would have to find another site because of the increasing traffic and other problems. Meanwhile, on a year to year basis, Little League can continue to use the Rotary Park site, and the final work for that corner of the park will be delayed, at least for a while.

Two Arrested in Ritter Break

Two men are in the Billerica House of Correction awaiting trial, and are charged with breaking and entering the H. R. Ritter Trucking terminal on Woburn Street, about 1:30 am Tuesday.

Officer Robert Shelley, while on patrol, observed a car drive behind the Ritter building. The operator got out, and proceeded to enter the Ritter building through a rear window, while a passenger remained in the car.

Shelley radioed for help, and then moved in, with Zip, the Police dog.

The man awaiting in the car was arrested and sent to the police station with officers Lynch and LaRivee. Shelley then entered the building with Zip and Officer Duffy and after a search determined that the man had left by the front entrance. He was soon captured on Woburn Street by Officer Duffy.

Some Good Guys Drive White Cars

Not all the good guys wear white hats. Some of them drive white cars, and Nick DeFelice Jr. is willing to testify.

He was in the Wilmington Post Office Saturday, mailing a package to his brother Tommy, who is serving in Vietnam.

The man in the line, next to Nicky, noticed that there was an APO San Francisco address to the package, and commented that it would be going quite a distance. Nicky told him it was for his brother in Vietnam, whereupon the stranger insisted on having the privilege of paying for the postage. He had no relatives over in Vietnam, he said, but was happy to be able to do something for someone over there.

Nicky didn't know him. He left the postoffice right away, and Nicky went to the door, and saw the fellow drive away. All Nicky knows is that the stranger was about 50 years old, and drives a white station wagon.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Well, Hello there, you guys and dolls! And I surely do love each and every one of you.

You were so wonderful while this chick was in the hospital, that for once in her long and noisy life, she was absolutely speechless. Thank you all for your many remembrances - and if that is the way you respond when I ask you to send cards, God Bless you . . . It really was the most heartwarming thing that this gal has ever had happen to her! And those Wilmington people have much more going for them too . . . Let me tell you about that.

Gus Blaisdell and Les Smith were the Fire Laddies on the Ambulance the night that I had to go pronto to the hospital, and they really did a prompt, efficient and considerate job. This gal wasn't the easiest one to handle, because she was certainly howling with the pain of that stupid spleen . . . They were at the house about two minutes after Sharon called the station, and they took me right out. It wasn't easy, because they didn't have an amphibious ambulance - and I heard Les ask Gus if he could make it. Gus said it was lucky that the machine had so much power, so it could get out of the holes on that street . . . that place is something else . . .

And, to TM Sterling - I really didn't do the accident on purpose, so I could check the efficiency of the ambulance service, but even if they don't have all the things that they should have, on that check list, they certainly do well without the equipment.

A few weeks ago, in the Boston Globe, there was a checklist for the town's ambulance service, and its efficiency was questioned. This gal cut it out, and noted on the questions, and then sent it to Sterling . . . and after I had that accident it occurred to me that he might think that I did it on purpose . . . Believe me, if that had been so, I'd have just broken a lousy leg or something.

Those Fire guys were great though, and I hope Les doesn't have a broken hand from me clutching it on the way down to the hospital!

Then, when I woke up from the operation, a familiar looking gal was leaning over the top of the bed, saying: 'Who's doing your writing this week?'

It was Mrs Jack Silvers from Salem Street, who is a nurse along with her doll of a daughter, on Intensive Care. . . . and Dolly Brooks from the other side of Salem Street came in and gave me a regular Clara Barton treatment up there . . . then we had Ruth Huston, who is the head nurse in surgery, and whom everyone loves. . . Ruth lives on Woburn Street, up near Hathaway Acres . . . lots of other Wilmingtonites are serving too, I'm sure.

Vinne Broderick is laying down there in the Winchester Hospital with weights on his legs. I think he has been in for a month. He is giving them all a fun time - with all the gals waiting on him. . . back problems. Both of us were Doc Marshall's patients - and they tried to put me in his traction. That would have been all I needed.

Catherine Mango of Forest St. is there, recouping from an operation. Her husband is Frank, the oil and heating salesman, and he made the Distinguished Salesman Award for the second year running. . . Congratulations, there, Frank . . . So - get out the cards gals, and let these folks benefit from your greatness. Both are in the Winchester Hospital, and I think Vinne will be there for some time longer.

From the North Wilmington Pharmacy came some card, from the folks at the lunch counter, and Doctor LePore came in to see this chick with the cutest apology for not being able to help Dr. John Meskounas slice her up, in the emergency operation . . . They told Doc Ralph on Thursday at the lunch counter at the No. Wilmington Pharmacy that this gal was the one who Dr. M. had called about, to assist with the removal of a ruptured spleen. We sure appreciate Dr. Ralph's apologies and concern, but to be truthful, at the time it happened, we could have cared less about who did the cutting, as long as they got out what-ever it was that was hurting.

Thanks anyway, Dr. Ralph . . . and Dr. M is really a surgeon. He's just great, and thanks to Dr. John for finding him.

Toni Fulgoni, you know that chick who used to do the flower arrangements at Grant's came in to see us with a cute Easter do.

She and her sister, and a three year old nephew are ski buffs, so she stopped working at Grant's last winter while the skiing was so good. Now she does arrangements at her home under the name of Floral Decorations by Tone. She is at 14 Burt Road, and her number is 658-4100 - she'll be advertising shortly. Meanwhile, if you need her decorations for a wedding or something, just give her a call.

The High School Juniors will be out next Tuesday, on a Patron's Drive, for their Junior Variety Show. They start at 6:30 pm, and if it rains they'll be out next Thursday, instead. They can use your support, folks.

Did you see that item in the Boston Globe on March 23 about a gal who had a car registered to her, in Wilmington, in an accident? She claimed she didn't have a car registered to her, and the Registry said she also had cars registered to her in Pembroke, East Bridgewater, and Brockton. . . Could she be quints, and not know it?

Now from some of the boys: Chuck Nickerson, who's address is SOPO, Box 9901, Tucson, Arizona 85720 . . . Dear Nancy: I was sorry to hear about your most unfortunate accident. I will pray for your speedy recovery. WMay, I'd like to reply to Mr Park's letter.

'According to government figures, there are about 50 million people that are poor in this country, and are 'existing at levels beneath those necessary for human decency'. Mr Park says this about poverty in the United States: 'sure we have it, but not because we haven't tried to clean it up. . . you can lead a horse to water but you cannot make him drink' This statement, I find, is most fallacious.

Mr Park has not presented any evidence to support his statement that our government has done nothing to help the migrant worker. Mexicans are still allowed to come across the border and work for much lower pay. What has the government done for the 16 million Americans that aren't covered by the minimum wage law of 1961? These are such people as dish washers and laundry workers. Are we to deny these people because they lack intelligence? What has the government done about the coal miners? What of the aged? A 1960 Senate report states 'at least one half of the aged, approximately 8 million, cannot afford today decent housing proper nutrition and adequate medical care'.

'And if you have the answer for ridding our land of the ghetto I'd sure like to have it! Using Mr. Park's words: How have we lead those horses to water? It makes me sick to hear people say that a person is poverty stricken because he chooses to be. If you want to care about poverty overseas, then that is fine. As for myself, I'm more concerned about my fellow Americans that are poverty stricken.

'Mr Park refers to college students as 'boys and girls' who expect too much from colleges. Well, we college 'men and women' expect to be able to obtain an education, and at the same time we believe in the old American Custom - Freedom of Speech. If we are denied this Freedom, then we won't be living in a Democracy. I am just as proud as any other person that I am an American, and I feel that I am obligated to the United States.

'If I were inducted into the Army I would willingly go and if need be, lay down my life. After I got out of the Army, if someone asked me what I thought of Vietnam, I would say, 'I deplore the whole situation'. There is a limit on just how long you can blindly wave the flag.

'Nancy, I think you are doing a fine thing for the servicemen's

Wilmington-Woburn boundary somewhere near the Smithcraft plant, and to go to Lowell Street.

This brought a chuckle from Russ Stone Sr., of Reading, the Reading representative. He told how Reading had enlarged its parking facilities for the Budd cars, and a recent survey showed that 70% of the cars parked there were 'from out of town'.

During the late winter storms, he said, an Andover man had called the Reading police, to learn if Reading had plowed out the parking areas. The desk sergeant, reportedly, had but one comment to make 'Drop Dead!'

Mrs. Margaret Keck of Andover was interested in any plans that Wilmington might have for the improvement of Ballardvale St. and the area abutting Andover. Andover has put in a new road to help out with its new Gillette traffic, but is still seeking a way to get out across the B&M RR into Wilmington. She was assured that Wilmington at this time has not made any definite plans.

HOW THE WILMINGTON PLANNING BOARD PARLAYED $30,000 is told to visiting Planning Board members by Danny Gillis of the Wilmington Planning Board.

Standing is Earl Campbell of North Reading, Ed Bowley of Tewksbury, and Russ Stone of Woburn, and seated beside Gillis is Frank Baxter of Burlington.

The Federal grant of $30,000 was started with money donated by Wilmington Industries, to help pay Wilmington's share of the 701 studies

LWV to Discuss Electoral College

John Donahoe of Woburn, who is also the Building Inspector in that city, spoke of the new development being made on the former Akerson and Stauffer property, and said that there will be a considerable development there by October. Woburn, he said, is trying to get a full cloverleaf with Route 93, and a new interchange between Routes 128 and 129. 'They laughed when we talked about it a year and a half ago'

The widening of Main Street in Woburn, to the Wilmington line, he said, would mean that the city would have to take about 30 homes by eminent domain. Instead the Planning Board there is exploring the idea of a new road, eastward of Route 38, to join 38 perhaps at the Wilmington line.

For a few minutes the various members discussed the problems of dumps, in their various towns. Baxter told the rest that the Town of Burlington is now spending $100,000 a year on its refuse problem.

It all has to be trucked out of Burlington

The League of Women Voters of Wilmington will be holding units on the Electoral College, on Wednesday Evening April 9 at 8 pm at the home of Mrs. Robert Rand, 8 Marie Drive, and on April 10th at 9:30 am at the home of Mrs. Augustus T Norton, Jr., 204 Wildwood Street.

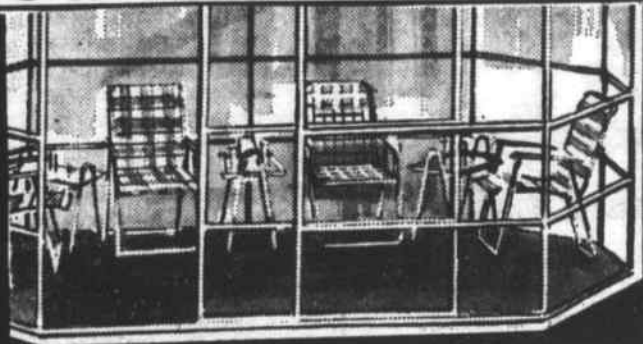

The committee plans to discuss the history of the Electoral College, and how it functions.

The purpose of the League of Women Voters is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government.

Anyone wishing to join the League or desiring information on babysitting services for League daytime activities may contact Mrs. Christian Bachman at 658-8319

JAY SAVAGE
CITED

James A. Savage formerly of Wilmington and now with the Tenth Precinct Officers in Washington D.C. was designated as a Traffic Officer of the Month by the D.C. Citizens Traffic Board.

The citation notes that Savage with Sampson E. Gaskins another officer apprehended a traffic violator on December 26, 1968, who was subsequently charged with armed robbery.

The suspect, who first attracted Savage's attention by parking in a bus stop zone, was also charged with possession of the implements of crime, petty larceny, and violation of the Uniform Narcotics Act.

Savage is married to the former Helen Kroll of Wilmington and resided with his wife and two daughters in Washington, D.C.

FUNERAL SERVICES TOMORROW FOR BILL BABINE

John W. (Bill) Babine, a life long resident of Wilmington, and Tree Warden of Wilmington for the past 32 years, died suddenly at the St. John's Hospital in Lowell on Tuesday morning, April 1st.

69 years old, the son of the late Ramey J and Evelina (Surrette) Babine, he was universally well liked by the residents of Wilmington. Mr Babine had been in business for himself until he went to work for the town 32 years ago. He was the manufacturer of a patent combination of portland cement and sand, called Grasalo, which he marketed, but which later was replaced by other products.

He was a Navy veteran of World War I, and was a member of the American Legion Post No. 136 and the William Tattersall Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys A. (Blamy) Babine, of 24 Laurel Avenue, and three children, Mrs Thomas (Gladys) Sullivan, Mrs Paul (Evelyn) Morrice and Robert M. Babine, all of Wilmington, a brother, J. Arthur Babine of Nova Scotia, and six grandchildren.

The funeral is to be held from the W. S. Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home, 374 Main Street tomorrow morning at 9:15 am followed by a Blessing at St. Thomas Church at 10 am. Burial will take place in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

A Pro-Burial Solemn High Mass of Requiem will be held for Mr. Babine at St. Thomas Church at 9 am Monday morning, April 7th.

Visiting hours at the Cavanaugh Funeral Home are from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 9 pm today.

The Wilmington Town Dump

IS PRIVATELY OWNED PROPERTY

ANY AND ALL PERSONS USING THE WILMINGTON TOWN DUMP FOR DISPOSAL OF THEIR REFUSE MUST COMPLY WITH THE RULES AND REGULATIONS AS SET FORTH BY THE OWNER, AND THE WILMINGTON BOARD OF HEALTH. ANY VIOLATOR MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A TRESPASSER.

THE CONTRACTOR THIS YEAR WAS FACED WITH A MAJOR DECISION BECAUSE OF THE MANY PROBLEMS ASSOCIATED WITH THE RESTRICTIONS AND CLOSINGS OF DUMPS IN THIS AREA. EITHER THE PRESENT OPERATION HAD TO BE CHANGED, OR THE OVER-BURDENED HOME OWNER WOULD HAVE TO FACE A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN COST.

AFTER MANY HOURS OF SEARCHING A FAIR AND EQUITABLE SOLUTION HAS BEEN FOUND.

AS OF APRIL 1, 1969, THE DEPOSITOR OF ANY RUBBISH OTHER THAN HIS OWN NORMAL HOUSEHOLD DEBRIS WILL BE DIRECTLY ASSESSED WITH A DISPOSAL FEE.

Hopefully, this dumping facility will provide the residents of Wilmington with an adequate dump at a reasonable fee.

High School Sports

Varsity Sextet Upsets Faculty-Alumni 5-2

Last Saturday afternoon at the Billerica Forum the Merrimack Valley league champion Wildcats defeated the high school faculty-alumni team in the feature event of the first annual Wilmington Ice Show. Playing before a highly partisan crowd, the Wildcats had to overcome a much LARGER opponent.

The young skaters scored early in the game as senior Dave O'Connell beat the faculty-alumni goalie, Bob Dicey, on a 20 foot screen shot. Three minutes later Pete Tighe made it 2-0 as his shot was deflected in off a defenseman's stick. Bob Stewart scored at the eight minute mark, midst a scramble in front of the faculty-alumni goal. Coach Tighe at this point replaced the weary Mr Dicey in the goal, with '67 grad Leo O'Connell.

With only a minute left in the initial period the Faculty-Alumni scored to close the gap to 3-1. Fessenden, with an assist from coach Ken Palm beat the Wildcat goal tender, senior Bill Montuori. Sophomore Steve Catalano drilled a 5 foot wrist shot by O'Connell at 2:35 of the second period, and the Wildcats led 4-1. Teacher George Cogan got this goal back for the older sextet as he beat Dana Tigh at 3:10. The complete faculty-alumni team assisted on this score. Bob Stewart then closed out the scoring for the afternoon as he fired a Jack Irwin rebound past O'Connell at 8:20.

Carl 'Bucky' Backman, 58 year old 'Father' of many Wilmington skating teams missed on a penalty shot late in the game, although showing the crowd that his form had not been slowed down at all.

Other alumni to play included Jimmy Downs, Larry Frost, Kevin Fields, Jimmy Melzar, Ralph Tarricone, Jimmy Cushing, Jimmy Brewster, Paul Theriault, and Paul and Don Currier.

Faculty members included varsity coach Ken Palm, assistant hockey coach Tom Muir, Al Fessenden, George Cogan, Joe Gilligan and Bob Dicey.

In the other games on the program the Hartford Pee Wees whipped the Wilmington Pee Wees 7-1, and the Wilmington Bantams shut out Hartford 4-0.

A fine exhibition of figure skating was presented by the North Shore Figure Skating club.

Notes from the back of
An Envelope

Seniors Jim Tildsley and Ed Gillis have been elected co-captains of the varsity baseball squad. . . . Sophomore Mike Esposito has the measles. . . . Something had to come along that could slow this fine athlete down. . . . Let's hope he is not out of action too long. . . . Athletic Director Larry Cushing called an excellent hockey game, Saturday. His only complaint. . . sore ankles from getting whacked as he dropped the puck during the face-offs.

Ed Rideout

A Sort of Genius

Ed Rideout is a man who has one of the stores in the Silver Lake Shopping Center, behind the Silver Lake Pharmacy, as his place of business. To put it mildly he is a sort of genius.

He is a self-taught engineer, a man who knows camera about as well as anyone in this world, and a man who is bristling with ideas on how to print things easier, and take pictures where and when pictures cannot be taken.

Currently his big operation is a printing business - Graphic Reproductions. He can reproduce any letter, or any copy, faster than it takes to talk about it. In 15 seconds Ed Rideout can start the printing of any small size job that comes into his office, and he not only is prepared to do this, but does it daily.

Mainly, it can be said, the printing techniques are his own. He has developed a special camera for the 'burning' of offset plates, used in that style of printing, and he is quite proud of it.

It, the special camera, is the reason he can get the jobs done so quickly - and, incidentally, at a good price.

Ed Rideout, a few years ago, while doing some camera work for the Atomic Energy Commission, out in the Nevada flats, fell from a tower, and broke about every bone in his body. He spent months in bed, and is still a very much crippled man.

ED RIDEOUT: And his Pride and Joy - his Modular Camera. It can be used for Printed Circuits, Offset Printing negatives, and many other uses. He has on hand orders for about $300,000 worth of cameras

But he spent those months in thinking, and when he got out he had his ideas all ready.

He has invented and patented a 'modular' camera, which is just about the thing that many small firms are looking for - if they know of it. It will develop small offset plates, it will photograph 'printed' circuits, used in the modern electronic arts, and it will do many other things, perhaps too numerous to mention.

Ed has been working on that camera now for several years, and is just about getting into production. So far he has orders for $300,000 worth - and that's some sort of proof that there are people who think he has the right idea.

Ed doesn't need that proof. He knows he has the right idea.

But, he says, the proof doesn't do any harm.

Ecumenicity, in the Christian Churches of Wilmington has gone a long way, in the past few years. The current Easter Holidays are being celebrated with many programs involving both Catholics and Protestants in churches of both denominations.

Good Friday, tomorrow, is to be observed by both Catholics and Protestants in a service in St. Dorothy's Church, starting at noon, and last Thursday Protestant and Catholic Clergy and Laity observed a Paschal supper, in the Methodist Church, with the Rev. Fr. Lawrence Drennan of St. Dorothy's and the Rev. Willis Miller of the Wilmington Methodist reading from the Douay version of the Bible.

52 Catholics and Protestants attended the Paschal Supper, including clergymen from both Catholic Churches, and from the Congregational, Baptist and Methodist Churches.

The Biggest Pussy Willow Tree

ENGINEERING WITH A STRING: And a six foot rule. Jack Klugerman of Newton and Roy Hines of Concord are at left, and Gottesfeld is at right. Their instruments were crude but the three Avco mathematicians knew what they were doing.

HARDING ARRIVES: Accompanied by his student engineer, John Majeski, a sophomore at Northeastern University, who works part time for the town as a 'co-operative engineering' student. Gottesfeld is crouching, with a six foot ruler in his hand.

It happened on April first, but it is not the type of story traditionally associated with that date.

The biggest pussy-willow tree in the United States has been located in Wilmington. It is off Andover Street, in North Wilmington, on the property line between the homes of Ralph D Knight and Kenneth M Lyons.

It was 'discovered' by Jay Gottesfeld of Andover, a mathematician at Avco. Mr Gottesfeld noticed the tree the evening before, on his way home, via Andover Street, and on April 1, during the Avco lunch hour, he and two companions, Jack Klugerman of Newton, and Roy Hines of Concord, went over and measured the tree, in an effort to establish its size.

They worked with string, a six foot rule, and a staff, establishing triangles by which to measure the tree, and Gottesfeld also had a plumb line, made of string and a brass faucet of the type found at the end of a garden hose, which he used to establish the extreme width of the tree branches.

The Avco mathematicians were in close, but approximate agreement as to the height of the tree, measured by their triangles.

Gottesfeld, by his measurements estimated that the tree was 39 feet high, and Klugerman arrived at a figure of 44 feet. In either case it was higher than the Chicago tree, and they agreed on a mean average of 41 feet.

The tree has a spread of its branches of forty feet, with its maximum spread being forty-two feet. Around its base the measurement is 4 feet 5 inches.

The Chicago tree has a spread of thirty-one feet and is thirty two feet high.

It was about this time that the Town Crier arrived on the scene, having been called by Mr. Knight. And shortly afterwards the town's Fire Chief, Arthur Boudreau, was to be seen driving up Andover St.

Mr. Boudreau was on his way to the Town Engineer's office. He was asked to tell the Town Engineer of the tree, which is distant only a quarter of a mile from the Engineer's office.

Arthur Harding, Town Engineer, and his assistant, John Majeski of Wakefield, a student engineer at Northeastern University, soon arrived.

Mr. Harding set up his transit, the student engineer held the rod, and Harding took a few sights. The tree, he announced, after a few figures had been written down, is 39 feet 4 inches high.

(The Lyons home, next door, dates to July 4, 1776, being an old Harnden home. Was the willow planted by some Harnden child, nearly 200 years ago?)

ESTABLISHING THE WIDTH OF THE BIGGEST PUSSY-WILLOW TREE: Jay Gottesfeld is holding a plumb line, with a water hose faucet for the 'plumb' as he stands on the front lawn of the Lyons home, and gazes upwards at the branches of the tree.

The pussy-willow catkins are in full bloom at this time.

More Nancy

morale. I have many friends in the service who receive the Town
Crier, and greatly appreciate it.
My views are directed to Mr Parks standpoint. I am by no means trying to knock the Servicemen.
Respectfully yours, Chuck Nickerson

Well, Chuck, we knew that... but are glad that you made yourself clear... anyway, don't doubt for a minute that there are enough poor people in the world to go around - wherever you choose to do your work, and as long as you do some!
That is one of the things we are fairly well convinced about, and are now firmly convinced, since the accident... that God put us here to work with people and you can't go into your house and 'shut the door!' THIS I really think is the cause of the generation gap... the people of the world, including our own Indians, Appalachians, Puerto Ricans and Negroes... all need help... and it's up to each and every one to help in some way!
Maybe we'll talk some more about it, later. Meanwhile, you seem to make it sound as though it is this chick who is sending the Town Crier to the servicemen. It is really the boss - and this humble gal is only glad that she has a chance to help!

Meanwhile - Back at the Ranch!
We'll be grounded for at least another week completely... then we hope that maybe they'll let us out of stir... but guess we should be patient. They tell us that there aren't too many people who walk away from this kind of an accident, so we'll keep tapping our toe!

Thanks again, to all of you, for your good thoughts and deeds. You really don't know what you did for this Chick, and the Clan's morale!
See you next week!
